Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 30 Pearl St.

Do you find the one you have bestowed your affections and trust upon acting cool and independent? Has a rival or obstacle of any kind crept between you and your future hope, or has the demon Rum assailed the quietude of your happy home? If so, come to this gifted medium and find help. I will guarantee to tell the names of your rivals, also tell

ARE YOU IN TROUBLE?

Thousands live to-day to bless and give credit of their success and happiness to my wonderful help. I have others—why not you? I never fail to cause speedy and happy marriages with the one of your choice, reunite the separated, locate absent friends and buried hidden treasures, give you luck to win your biggest wish, overcome bad luck and sorrow of all kinds, and it takes one but a very short time. In fact, I guarantee everything I claim and you pay nothing until you have received value in full.

Business Men, if you are perplexed over business matters or employer law suits, come and see me. I am the only medium in this country who understands the secret of psychological work; when only a child it was revealed to me that I was endowed with this heavenly gift, and I have devoted my entire life to this secret work. There is no mystery so deep that I cannot fathom, heart so sad I cannot gladden; my predictions and psychological work can be implicitly relied upon.

loss was about $1,500, covered by insurance.

George A. Westover of St. Albans, a ruptcy in the office of F. S. Platt, clerk of the United States court. He gives girls are now employed on the machines.

This force will be daily increased as those now at work gain the experience necessary to teach new girls.

The Rev. Philip Schuyler, rector of St. Peter's parish at Bennington for the past 13 years, will take up missionary work in the diocese of Maine.
The position he has been offered is that of canon commissioner of the state of Maine.

In accordance with its annual custom the Middlebury Historical society will observe "Forefathers' day" Wednesday, December 21, at the Congregational church. The Rev. John D. Sewall, of Boston, will deliver an address on "The Pilgrim as a Business Man."

Because he refused to leave the tin can factory when ordered by the proprietor, Fred Manley of Rutland was fined $5 and costs of $5. Manley had been discharged for negligence, but he indulged in a free-for-all fight when expressing his unwillingness to leave.

Ice cutting will probably begin in Rutland in about ten days. At Edly's pond, south of the city, eight inches of ice is reported and it is said to be of the best quality. The ice on Otter creek is ten to twelve inches thick in some places and cutting will soon begin if the cold weather continues.

Rather than pay what he considered an exorbitant freight charge on a pair of three-year-old Normandy steers which he had bought in Guilford, Phil H. Hew it walked from that place to his home in Torrington, Conn., driving the steers.
He left Guilford November 21, reaching home Thanksgiving day.

Just after the last big snowstorm, a flock of pine grosbeaks, rare birds from the far north, were seen about the streets of Rutland and one of them, which had been injured in some way, was found nearly dead. It was picked up and placed in a cage in the house of Matthew Hussey, where it seems perfectly at home and has become quite a pet.

of a blast in the slate quarry of the necessitated the amputation of four fingers and included severe powder burns on the right leg. David Williams of Poulton and John Hennessey of North Poulton, who were injured at the same time, were taken to the Albany, N. Y.

City hospital. Mr. Williams lost an faculty numbers 25 and the students 288, thirteen states being represented in the enrollment. Of the number, 157 are from Vermont. A new feature of the college work is the formation of students are grouped to assist the students who wish to specialize in some particular branch of study. They include agriculture, business, education, engineering, journalism, law, medicine, mineral industry and theology. A gymnasium fund of $50,000 has been com-
